FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

CAMPAGNA MOTORS to enter Japanese market with Brain Trading

CAMPAGNA MOTORS is a young Canadian company that design, manufactures 3-wheel vehicles. Its mission is to create and provide vehicle that are unique, fun to drive, have lots of style and perform like nothing else.

Its flagship product being the famous T-REX

The T-REX is specifically oriented towards the race car / sports car fan; with performances often surpassing those of supercars that cost multiples of the T-REX. Powered by a four cylinder 1400cc engine designed by Kawasaki and producing almost 200 hp, the T-REX will get your attention on the road.

With dealers in Canada, United-States, the Middle East and now Japan, the T-REX is available for customers around the world.

Brain Trading is the importer of T-REX for Japan and is responsible of the establishment of a dealer network. With a population over 100 million people and a liking for fast cars; Japanese enthusiasts will be able to enjoy the experience of a ride in a T-REX.

"We are very happy to deal with the people at Brain Trading. Their experience and knowledge of the motorcycle industry, the players both in Japan and everywhere else in the world make them a great partner to develop CAMPAGNA MOTORS in Japan." Says Mr. Morissette, CAMPAGNA President and CEO.

We believe that the Japanese clients will be very happy with our products, our commitment to service, quality and a great experience.
